

Title: Trainer Of The Oliver McGowan Mandatory Training

Background

Melanie Cassidy is an experienced healthcare and education professional with a robust background in nursing, training, and coaching within clinical and adult care settings. She excels in guiding learners through their apprenticeships, providing vocational support, and ensuring high standards in educational delivery. Her current role at Dynamic Training Limited involves multi-faceted responsibilities, including coaching, mentoring, and delivering specialised training sessions.

Experience

Melanie Cassidy is an experienced healthcare and education professional specialising in nursing, training, and coaching within clinical and adult care settings. At Dynamic Training Limited, she coaches adult learners, supporting them through their apprenticeships.

Passion

Melanie is passionate about maintaining high standards in education and care, utilising meticulous assessment methods to support Dynamic Training's growth and reputation. She is dedicated to enhancing the wellbeing and success of apprentices and healthcare professionals through quality training and mentorship.

Find Out More About The Training